

Trinity Academy

Publicity Permission Form

There are opportunities throughout the year to publicize the great events going on at Trinity, and the works of our students. These include, but are not limited to:

- 1) Photos sent to local newspapers. Children's names and sometimes towns are REQUIRED to be included in newspaper articles.
- 2) Trinity Academy website is a source of useful material for our current families as well as general information for prospective families. We plan on including photos of children on our website as well. Names or identifying information will NOT be included.
- 3) Marketing materials, including brochures, ads, and banners. Names or identifying information will NOT be included.
- 4) Third-party websites (Facebook, Patch, online versions of newspapers/magazines). Names or identifying information will NOT be included.

Please signify below your permission for either or both of the following 1) Permission for your child's photo, name and town to be printed in the local newspapers. 2) Permission for your child's photo to be used on our website, marketing materials and other websites.
